MARRIAGE OF WHITES AND NE GROES IN THE NORTH.

ixon Sees Impending Menace to the Country in Pollution of Racial Life.

Thomas Dixon, Jr., author of "The Clansman," sends to The Columbia Record some clippings from New York papers giving various details of was that of a white woman who was slapped in the face on a street car by negro. Since that time, as press dispatches have shown, Mrs. Oliver has been subjected to all sorts of insulting and threatening letters written by negro men and women. Mr. Dixon's letter follows:

The time has come for the South to boldly demand the repeal of all laws placed themselves in line with Southern sentiment on this issue.

The increasing corruption of our ace in the North by the physical contact of more than a million pegroes, is something appalling.

The revelation of the Spriggs case s the foulest blot on the civilization of the century. The real details of this trial were nover printed. The ralf-whispered testimony of those rembling, broken girls caused the judge and jury again and again to burst into tears. This negro was the keeper of four prison houses into which young white girls were kidnap-ped and held for years in slavery for black beasts to violate. He will serve but eleven years for these hideous crimes and will then return to his white wife and his old life.

Beyond a doubt this system of secret white slavery to negro bestiality is unnversal in the great Northern cities. The increasing pollution of our ractal life is early fixed where it belongs.

The open and shameless practice of social equality with negroes by some of our great educational leaders, the pandering to negro votes, and the disgusting propaganda of shallow theorists are producing these fruits. A big buck negro is collector of internal revenue in New York. His employment of a white girl stenographer is a daily object lesson to his race. In Chicago, recently, a public reception was held for negroes only who had married white women. Seventyfive of these mongrel families were

Tombstones and Monuments.

Irepresent three large marble works, and it will pay anybody needing anything in this line to get my prices before buying. You should not fail to mark the last resting place of your loved ones with a stone whose inscription w ll survive for many years the crumbling touch of time. It is a duty of love that should be symbolized by something more lasting than flowers watered by tears of grief. Every slab, shaft, tombstone or monument I handle is a trivially of the stone author's scalator's and appropriate dle is a triumph of the stone cutter's, sculptor's and engraver's art and my prices are most reasonable. How about that neglectgrave of mother, or father, sister or brother? Can refer you to work done in this county by the companies I represent, and I think that you will agree that it is first-class in every particular.
